

ALAMO CITY
MERCY FOUNDATION
*"Helping the least, the last,
and the lost at any cost."*

From the Heart...

After the Lord took Billy home, so many questions swirled through my mind regarding my future. For 15 years I had been Billy's helpmate, and the reality of having to go it alone stunned me.

I remember vividly shortly after Billy died, David Walker and Sammy Tippit encouraging me to continue the ministry of the Mercy Foundation. At that point all I could think was, "There is no way!"

Billy is the visionary, Billy is the extrovert, Billy is the speaker, fund-raiser, you name it." Despite my arguments, I felt the Lord confirming their words in my spirit. Even though I could not imagine that God could use me to oversee this ministry, I did know that if He called me, He would be faithful to equip me. And He has!

Within a few months of that conversation, the Lord began to give me a vision for the future ministry of the Mercy Foundation. He has called me to carry the mantle that had been passed on to me by my husband.

Billy's heart was for the nations, and now, God is calling me to go. I humbly ask you to keep me in prayer as I try to walk in a manner worthy of the calling I have received.
